

“A DAY IN THE LIFE” DIGITAL STORYTELLING GROUP JOB DESCRIPTIONS

JOB	JOB DESCRIPTION
Plot/Story Charter:	Your job is to make sure that your plot chart makes sense and that all directions were followed. Does your group have 8 pictures? Do they create a story? Do you follow the parts of a plot chart from beginning to end? Does it create a story with conflict, purpose, and theme?
Global Awareness/Cultural Director:	Your job is to add the think about your group's "A Day in the Life" storyline. Is your group including ideas that are reflective of the culture we live in? What ideas or items can your group include so that our global partnering classroom and your ePal will have a better understanding of "A Day in the Life."
Computer Operator #1:	Your job is to work with Computer Operator #2 and utilize Wikispaces.com and type your group's ideas for your "A Day in the Life" story/plot creation. You may use the Plot/Story Charter for help and the Global Awareness Director should you need assistance with typing.
Computer Operator #2:	Your job is to work with Computer Operator #1 utilize Wikispaces.com and type your group's ideas for your "A Day in the Life" story/plot creation. You may use the Plot/Story Charter for help and the Global Awareness Director should you need assistance with typing.
Project Manager:	Your job is to oversee and assist each person in your group. You need to make sure that you and your group stays on task and completes it by the assigned deadline. In addition, you will need to fill out a project manager's log that you will need to fill out each day with your group.